

Welcome RRCC Member!

The RRCC (Richardson Radio Control Club) flying site is at Bratonia Park in Collin County. The RRCC manages this flying site for the Army Corps of Engineers and Collin County. As a member of the RRCC it is important to acknowledge that the Bratonia flying site is not property of the RRCC, it is a leased asset. Any modifications to this flying site must be approved by both the Army Corps of Engineers and Collin County. Permission to modify the flying site is obtained exclusively through the RRCC Leadership Team. Any RRCC member who modifies the flying site (leased property) without proper RRCC sanction and approval can be subject to expulsion from the RRCC and Federal criminal prosecution by the Army Corps of Engineers and Collin County. Modification of the flying site includes but is not limited to:

- Damage to the natural landscape
- Cutting/removing trees and shrubs
- Dumping of any kind
- Alterations to the flying site

Please acknowledge this important club policy below.

I, _____ have read and understand the RRCC policy about the Bratonia Park Site Flying Field.
